Corey Murphy gave an EDC update. The webinar for "Not So Fast" is recorded and the link is now on the EDC webpage. Revolving loan increased loan to $12,000.00 for three years with six months interest only have given out four loans and three more in process.

Joel Harvey County Attorney has reviewed Ordinance 2020-1-3-12 An Ordinance Affirming the Declaration of a Public Health Emergency and Enacting Regulations to Limit the Spread of Communicable Disease, and doesn't feel any changes need to be made at this time. Changes could be made if needed after the Governors new Executive Order on Friday.

Dr. Miller and Angela Cox feel before any changes are made to the current Health Emergency Ordinance we should get plan from all business as to what their protocol will be when we do start opening businesses back up. Their protocols should be posted on their Facebook page as well as their company website.

A motion was made by Kim Cronk and seconded by Ed Tarantino to maintain Ordinance 20-1-3-12 until the Governor came out with a new Executive Order on Friday, then the Commissioners can issue a new Executive Order if changes needed to be made on Friday afternoon. The Commissioners will meet again May 6, 2020 via zoom to review the Ordinance more. Motion carried unanimously

Shaun DuFault expressed his concern about the closing of businesses.

Ed Yanos said this is a very difficult situation and the commissioners are looking out for the wellbeing of Henry County.
